Flyers Relax Between Games at Calgary

You gotta look your best, just in case the autograph hunters get on your trail. Mervyn Hymel, who has been playing stand-out hockey in the series, takes time out for a bit of sprucing up as Flyers rested yesterday.

Bill Maher isn't exactly reading to Bing Merlok, teammates rarely going that far in the business of camaraderie. However, the injured winger spent much of Sunday with his damaged foot stuck in an antiseptic solution and Maher was close by some of the time to offer advice and, perhaps, a little heckling.

Now and then even a trainer gets a chance to relax. Doug Hardy takes time out from his multiple-duties to catch up on his solitaire. "No... I never cheat... don't have to," he says.

Dick Irvin Is Suggested As Buyer of Regina Caps

By Stan Mohr

CALGARY, March 14.—Play-off time is a time of many rumors. Latest one going the rounds as Flyers and Stampeders await the fourth game of their series in Victoria. Arena a few hours hence connects Dick Irvin and the Regina Caps.

Kilburn Gets High Praise

Special to The Bulletin

CALGARY, March 14.—Collin Kilburn was coming in for a great round of congratulations at a late hour Sunday when news hit the Flyer camp that the rugged left-winger had won the Western Canada Hockey League's rookie award for the current season.

"It couldn't have been anyone else," Frank Currie, coach of the team, exclaimed. "Bill, we're all delighted."

As for Kilburn himself, he is taking his honors modestly enough. There isn't much fuss or fanfare about this young man. He just plays a lot of hockey when the opportunity presents itself.

Kilburn's winning of the first-year honors serves to continue his domination in this department. In 1946-47, first season—the award was made, Cy Thomas, now with University of Alberta Golden Bears, was the selection of the voters. Last season Doug Anderson, also of the Edmonton team, ran off with the laurels. He just won Kilburn's selection "just great."

WEED KILLER AND PARKA UP FOR SALE

You ain't heard neither yet. That's what Bulletin readers say as they scan the daily want ads.

Anything from a baby carriage to a week-killer is up to get a mention.

Every day something really different is advertised in these columns. There is the man who returned from the south with a hand-made kokomo parka for his boy.

Nipissing Gets Liberal Nominee

NORTH BAY, Ont. March 14.—(CP)—R. H. David Jacko Garland, Nipissing, has been chosen as a riding candidate for the federal election in the new constituency of Nipissing.

Pacific Pact Being Talked

CANBERRA, March 14.—(Reuters)—Discussions now are going on for the "continuation of a Pacific Regional Defence Pact embracing Australia as well as British New Guinea," Defence Minister John Dedman said here today.

Dedman said Britain has taken an "active part" in the talks for a pact "similar to the Atlantic Defence Pact."

Prairies Have Record Chill

Slight moderation in temperature is promised Edmontonians for tomorrow, but in the meantime the mercury will remain from 30 to 35 degrees below normal for the rest of the week.

The weatherman says the mercury will drop to eight below tonight as the mercury continues low. But temperatures are beginning to moderate in the far north and estimated high here for tomorrow is 25 above.

The week-end was one of the coldest on record for the prairies. The mercury here was 26 degrees below normal last night when it dropped to 11 below and at Lethbridge it was 35 degrees below normal.

Schoep Zone Deeper Still

Pay zone of the Golden Spike oilfield discovery, Imperial Oil Corp. No. 1 was increased to 250 feet this morning as results of the latest well stem test were made known.

Two of the intervals, 5,562 to 5,573 feet resulted in a gas flow at the rate of 14,000 cubic feet per day and a stand of 2,000 feet of oil in the well pipe. No water was encountered.

Cure has been taken to 5,580 feet and preparations are being made to run another test.

BROKE BUT LIVES IN $340 SUITE

LONDON, March 14.—(UPI)—Krisina Vents, self-styled-Messiah, shook his shoulder-length curls, wagged a bare toe and assured Britain today that it could relax and consider itself saved.

"I have come to save Britain," Vents said. "I am the new Messiah. I carry the same mission as Christ carried 1,900 years ago. My name is Vents, 'Christ' Everlasting."

Vents arrived here yesterday from Los Angeles and set up headquarters in a suite in the swank Claridges hotel, cutting off a lock of hair and wearing a black suit.

His attractive wife, Ruth, 34, wore a scantily-clad robe of pale pink. She said she used to be a Messianic.

RIVER PIRATES IN B.C. SECURE $3,000 LOOT

LANEY, B.C. March 14.—(CP)—River pirates bored their way into the M.C. and M.C. hardware store yesterday and escaped by boat, with $3,000 worth of silver loot, police said today. LANEY is 12 miles south of Vancouver.

Most of the booty consisted of power tools, electric motors, rifles and knives.

Police said the thieves, who they believe left the scene by boat, left untouched an office containing more than $2,000.

The store is built on a dike of the Fraser river with the rear raised on pilings.

Leland Laughs Over Lights

By Leland BYRON

CALGARY, March 14.—Coach Currie should throw away his hockey sticks and use flashlight cameras tonight when the Calgary Stampeders are visiting about the strings behind Ross Detert's in the second period.

The teams split a pair of third period goals, but the Stampeders' goal was the better one.

Maybe they should turn the lights down real low like Calgary goalie Detert is bothered by lights. Might even burn candles except all that Calgary hot air would blow them out.

Perhaps the Stampeders would like soft music too and don't find the ice a little cool for their pinkies?

It seems so ridiculous, this complaint about flash bulbs. If all the flash bulbs used to take hockey pictures were laid out and covered the stretch from Boston in the N.H.L. to the powder room of the Calgary dressing room.

A few years ago when senior hockey on the prairies was so unpopular the team begged cameramen to come out and take pictures even if they did get lonehane.

Edmonton Flyers claim they don't care how many lights flash so long as it isn't a certain red one behind the Edmonton net.

Maybe that's the trouble with Calgary goalie Detert. He's seen a light flash. He thinks it's a goal.

And be careful, Calgary mothers. When you put the light in the window tonight to guide home your dejected Stampeders don't have the flame too bright.

Einstein Now 70

PRINCETON, N.J., March 14.—(UPI)—Dr. Albert Einstein, discoverer of the theory of relativity, observed his 70th birthday today.

Fire Critics Holding Off

Formal complaints against the Edmonton fire department's handling of the last week's fire will not likely be laid with the city for at least two weeks.

Officials "too busy" with the city for at least two weeks.

George H. Scott, president of Northern Hardware Ltd., owner of the building, said today officials of burned-out companies are "too busy cleaning up."

He added that both himself and W. S. Campbell, a partner in Gauk's Alberta Ltd., feel inclined to lay formal charges against the fire department's handling of the blaze.

Gauk's suffered heavy losses in the fire that gutted the three top floors of the six-story wholesale building on 104 street.

Work of rebuilding the interior will commence as soon as clean-up operations are completed, Mr. Scott said.

TEMPORARY QUARTERS

Offices are being provided on lower floors for firms being out of temporary warehouse space have been found elsewhere for firms that lost their stocks in the fire.

Snow In Tokyo

TOKYO, March 14.—(AP)—It snowed four inches in Tokyo today. Hundreds of Japan's flowering trees were caught in full bloom after an unusually mild winter.

Work Stoppage Idles 471,000 U.S. Miners

PITTSBURGH, March 14.—(AP)—A miners' work stoppage has idled the coal output of the United States to a mere trickle.

It made little more $100,000 hard and soft coal miners in the United States. It hit the country's coal-dependent industries by forcing the closure for some 60,000 rail road workers.

The dispute started a two-week voluntary lay-off in answer to John L. Lewis' call for a memorial to dead and injured miners.

Miners also are protesting appointment of Dr. James Boyd as director of the United States Bureau of Mines.

The idle miners normally work in 30 states: West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Alabama, Ohio, Virginia, Tennessee, Indiana and Maryland.

Wild Well Awaiting Rig

Drilling rig for a directional hole to tap the wild Stansford Lake No. 1 is expected to arrive on the site today.

The rig is one of General Petroleum light rig used in the abandoned Laramie field.

Angle at which the relief well must be drilled to hit the oil zone is 90 degrees from which the gas is coming and the small angle of drilling, much possible in the shallow well, are considered serious difficulties by oilmen here.

Prospects of the well reaching fire are being fought great because of the water present in the gas and because no oil is accompanying the gas.

Drilling equipment valued at $100,000 is now in the hole but the cost of this may be recovered when the wild well is brought under control.

Bail Refused To Sam Carr

TORONTO, March 14.—(UPI)—Sam Carr, former Communist party organizer, charged with plotting for an international job, today was refused a request for release on bail by the Ontario Supreme Court. Joseph Sedwick, Carr's attorney, had entered the request on the grounds that Carr was ill.

It Happened TODAY

Education

The man who paved the mathematical highway to the use of atomic energy doesn't think highly of modern education methods. On his seventieth birthday, Albert Einstein declared, "It is nothing out of the ordinary that modern methods of instruction have not yet entirely strangled the holy curiosity of inquiry." The great scientist admitted he disliked the coercion of examinations and wished to study in his own way subjects that interested him.

World

A big man is helping a little man get home to his family from Soviet-occupied Poland. Gen. George C. Marshall made a special visit to a lonely cabin in Sandomierz, Poland, recently to talk things over with a G.I. wife. The G.I. wrote Gen. Marshall that he had re-emerged after the war on the understanding he would be stationed near his wife and two children in the United States.

Germany is the Soviet zone are not exactly thriving under conditions prevailing there. Deaths are far outstripping births in the Russian-occupied zone, states the American military government newspaper Neue Zeitung. The paper says this is the most alarmingly guarded secret in the Soviet zone.

Great Britain has sharply warned the Communist government of Bulgaria it considers that country has broken her treaty guarantees of political and religious freedom. The protest is made following conviction by a Bulgarian people's court of 15 Protestant church leaders for espionage and other offenses. Alleged confessions of churchmen that they spied for Britain are completely false, the note states.

The Nation

Firewater still causes most of the trouble for the Canadian Indian in B.C. fronting to the Indians at Alert Bay, 200 miles north of Vancouver, is rampant, according to M. S. Todd, Indian superintendent. Whiskey is being run in by speed boat to the Alert Bay district, it is claimed.

Navigation on the Great Lakes will begin nearly a month earlier than usual. Many lake harbors are already ice-free. The entire waterway, 2,000 miles in length, is expected to be open by April 2. Some cargo will begin moving this week. The St. Lawrence locks are expected to be opened by March 25.

Crime

Ten-year crime is on the decrease in Toronto, says J. M. McCallum said today. Toronto would soon see the last of hoodlum gangs of youngsters. He blamed public opinion, given youthful offenders for the recent outbreak of ten-year crime.

Labor

Organized labor has no desire to dominate the city of Windsor, Union leaders declared today. Labor officials were commenting on an article by Prof. C. W. M. Hart of the University of Wisconsin which stated labor has taken leadership over business and the church in the border community. Labor spokesmen declared they assist church and business leaders in every way possible.

The Services

Field Marshal Montgomery's famous beetle is under fire. Alan Gomme-Duncan, one time Scottish regiment colonel, attacked the famed Monty beetle in parliament, declaring it is a filthy piece of chit. He called it "hideous."

The United States has been charged with creating strong naval bases in the Mediterranean and fighting in along the African coast. "Red Fleet," official organ of the Soviet Navy, makes the charge, declaring these bases are a springboard for aggression against the Soviet Union.

Pictures To Be Allowed At Calgary Game Tonight

Special To The Bulletin
CALGARY, March 14.—There will be no ban on action-photographs when Flyers tackle Stampede at Victoria Arena in the fourth game of their best-of-five semi-final western Canadian Hockey League series here tonight.

Actuals this will follow the picture in vague Saturday as Flyers turned back Stampede 3-1 to take a one game lead. The flash-bulb brigade (there weren't too many of them in the arena for the third contest anyway) operated pretty much as they pleased, somewhat of a departure from the suddenly imposed ban in the Edmonton arena for the second game last Thursday.

However, last Wednesday D. P. MacDonald, president of the league, indicated he would expect the candidate arena to "use some discretion" as to when and from where they took their pictures.

"We don't want their taking pictures from a point likely to interfere with the goalkeepers' efforts. I'm certain they still can get all they require," the proxy added.

It's possible Harry Burke, Calgary coach who, in the first place, was behind the movement to throw a monkey wrench into the operations of the photographers, again may raise the question.

Heavy Tax Cuts Are Seen Shortly

Higher Income Exemptions And Luxury Levy End Hinted

OTTAWA, March 14.—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent predicted the other day, as loudly as he could without shouting it from the parliamentary roof-tops, that you, Mr. Taxpayer, are going to get an awful bang out of the forthcoming budget.

He dropped the hint, just like somebody dropping a sledge-hammer in a violent rictus, during a Commons discussion on which legislation the government has in mind for the immediate future.

He sort of sidled into the thing with the statement that "perhaps it might be of interest to the public" to have Finance Minister Abbott bring down his budget before the end of this month.

Then he added (and you can put your own interpretation on this): "I think the public would be glad to know the contents of the minister's proposals as soon as they can be made available."

There, just like that. In fact, some of parliament bill say he couldn't have made more plain that the government has in mind that there'll be an election this June or in October.

Of course, everybody figures this is going to be an election year—the government's mandate runs only until the middle of 1950—and what, they say, could be more natural than that the government make the folks feel more friendly towards it. Talk around here is that there'll be an election this June or in October.

Even the Liberal members are talking about cutting taxes. There have been lots of suggestions since parliament opened Jan. 18 that taxes be cut.

This means that the government might lift the tax exemptions, in say, $1,000 for single persons, and $2,000 for those who are married.

Of course, there are other kinds of taxes—like the "what the politicians call "hidden" taxes.

They include the 25-per-cent luxury tax, on things such as computers and cigarette lighters and silver tea-pots and baby mugs; the eight-per-cent sales tax which applies to just about everything you buy except certain canned foods and the so-called "nuisance" taxes which boost the price of soft drinks and chocolate bars.

Some of these have caused more grumbling than any others and the better hope is that they—or some of them, at least—will go out of the window.

Canada, United States, Australia, Denmark, New Zealand and Norway raise enough food to feed them, but at adequate nutritional levels.

Clubmen In Gay Mood After Blanking Leafs 4-0 To Clinch Junior Championship

BIG HERO in EAC triumph was Jerry Ball, hard-working winger. He suffered the above cut early in the game, but suffered a humiliating 8-4 loss at the hands of Leafs last Thursday. And so ends a thrilling junior hockey final series.

FRIEND INDEED was this pad of Wally Laubman, EAC goalie. Laubman, along with other team-mates, went in fine fashion to topple Leafs. He made a nice comeback after suffering a humiliating 8-4 loss at the hands of Leafs last Thursday. And so ends a thrilling junior hockey final series.

Ball Terrific as Clubmen Win Junior Hockey Title

By Jim Algeo

It was only fitting that Jerry (Shadow) Ball, 20-year-old hustler of the first water, should score the winner as EAC's walloped Maple Leafs 4-0 at the Arma to win the city junior hockey championship Saturday night.

For it was the diminutive winger, one of the few free agents in the junior wheel, who stole the show from a number of other EAC stickmen.

A 16-inch gash over the left eye, suffered in the early going, didn't even halt Ball as he went right to work. He was the only player to score when the game was tied 1-1. In fact, after getting banged up by Jimmy Stewart's stick, Ball lost just enough time out for trainer Jim Mitchell to slap on a bandage and was back in the arena.

At that moment the bandaging was on the wall for Leafs. Ball had succeeded in demoralizing the entire team.

That wasn't all the plucky winger did, either. Given the job of shadowing Ken Watson, Leaf flash, at his own request, Ball turned in a chaps that even Elmer Kreier, the original chaps, would have taken his hat off to.

As a result of making Watson look bad, the entire Leaf club looked bad over most of the route. But Ball wasn't out there just to make Watson look bad, far from it. The whole vishnag was in high gear. The defense of George McAvoy, Don Perry and Dave Little turned in a stellar job. And Wally Laubman, made mean why the Clubmen lost last Thursday, redeemed himself in fine fashion.

Leafs and the close to 5,000 fans who witnessed the hard-fought game will tell you, the best team was Saturday night.

It was a great one to win, a tough one to lose.

Leafs, however, shouldn't feel too badly about it all. They had the elements well in hand, five of the seven games in the slam-bang series.

EAC, rocking Leafs at every chance, were fortunate to come out of the opening period with a 5-0 tie. Leafs failed to capitalize on four straight penalties to beat McKay 5-1 and Lee Dupuis.

Ball's goal, which proved to be the clincher, came at 19:27 of the third period. It was the only goal of the night. The Leafs failed to score in the final 30 minutes. McKay let go with a 35-foot whizzer to make it 4-0, and then, with Leafs

Caps Gain 'Meat-Ticket' Line Back' WCHL's Final Set In Form As Flyers Win

LETHBRIDGE, Alta.,

March 14. — (CP) — The powerful Regina Caps made a clean sweep of their best-of-five semi-final series in the Western Canada Hockey

league when they defeated

Lethbridge Maple Leafs 5-1

in the third game last Saturday night.

It was Regina's last reminder of the playoffs, as the National

Hockey League's Max and

Doug, who spelled defeat for the Leafs, turned aside 30 shots in the first two periods in a clean game that was marked with only eight penalties.

Kirkpatrick collapsed in the first period when Regina counted four goals.

Bob Kirkpatrick said the Leafs into a first-period slump when he took a pass from Simpson and beat Bentley on a hard shot.

Then Sweeney Schirmer got the equalizer when he tacked on a three-way play with McCullough and Hill.

In the third period Hank sent the Caps in the lead before the period was 30 seconds old. Hill then followed up with another period later. McDougall and Stapleton then counted one each to end the scoring.

The Leafs were unlucky Saturday night. They started off in a great style and kept Caps hemmed in their own territory for the greater part of the first two periods. Only semantical goalkeeping by the defensive Leafs kept them from scoring more than the one goal they did.

mature, Merik failed to answer the bell for the third stanza.

Leafs being made at the rest-period that he had suffered a state game in his foot. Freddie Smith filed in for him over the rest of the route. A doctor looked at the foot and advised that the Leaf Branch product will be unable to play in Monday's fourth game.

While the spotlight was on the "meat-ticket" line because, after all, it takes goals to win hockey games, one wouldn't be stretching the truth to say that Saturday's victory was a team triumph all down the line.

Collectively the hibernia (in this series) lachrymated Edmonton crew went in busting, building fashion from the bell to bell. Flyers were on edge, were keen again.

The shock troops, spearheaded by Bud MacPherson, who turned in another outstanding effort, made of the Edmonton blueline line of a welcoming mat than it had been previously.

And in being, goalie Keith Woodall came up with a sparkling performance, possibly his best of the season to date. As he all last him the roller on the Stamper's Woodall rose to the heights in the first five minutes particularly as Alex Pringle and Gordon Watt drew successive penalties. The Stamper poured it on with a vengeance in a stinging attempt to get that all-important first goal. They had Woodall doing everything but stand on his head before the Flyers came in.

However, Watt's sentence finally was served and the tide of play began to swing the other way.

Suddenly Anderson shot a flyer to the top. He picked up a loose puck over which Merik and Stamper had been wrestling.

Merik and Sweeney were waging a private argument deep in the Calgary area, and away sharply to his right and backhanded a drive to even the score. That last drive was a beautiful one.

Merik's drive, which Stamper recognized, was the signal for a Calgary rearguard, was in the side-in at the time for having used a knee on the ice.

Flyers continued in command of exchanges throughout the mid-second stanza. That last drive by Cleveland made it 2-0. Again the Flyers were in command. In the play, the young Flyers gave their streaking roller from Bud Gordon in the Calgary area and then dealing to Cleveland, who pulled behind them from the outside, the chase.

Then there were one could sense that the Flyers were in.

FIRE AND BRIMSTONE As might be expected the Calgary crew were in a bit of a state of mind to get the third heat underway. The fire went out after Cleveland pulled their only goal. Flyers gradually were them down again. When the Flyers legged it away on a breakaway at 15:32 to beat McDougall's goal.

And so ended the night's play. They were bagged for the night.

The victory from the north, which claimed up a little more and waited for the final klaxon that tore it for keeps, under as the Barkmen were concerned.

A good one to win, a tough one to lose. The night's play was a good one to win. A tough one to lose. The night's play was a good one to win.

A good one to win, a tough one to lose. The night's play was a good one to win. A tough one to lose. The night's play was a good one to win.

Colin Kilburn Wins WCHL Rookie Award

CALGARY, March 14. — (CP) — Regina, Edmonton and Calgary players walked off with individual awards in the Western Canada Hockey league this season.

League president D. P. McDonald announced last night that winners of a ballot conducted by the league were:

Most valuable player—Dane Grant of Calgary Stampers.

Rookie of the year—Colin Kilburn of Edmonton Flyers.

Best goalkeeper—Bey Bentley of Regina Capitals.

BRILLIANT SEASON Award of the Gordon efficiency medal and Mather trophy to Dane Grant, 20-year-old forward, for the smooth-skating Calgary Stampers.

The league's best rookie of the year is a graduate of Edmonton Midlet and Juvenile Leagues. Kilburn, 20, started out with Edmonton Junior Canadians last season and finished the year with the Westswe Junior before moving to senior ranks this year.

Despite playing his first season in senior ranks, Kilburn was among the league's top scorers all season and ended the regular schedule tied for ninth place in the scoring race with 61 points.

Proper use of soft, quiet rollers in stick routine does much to better the player's mental outlook.

A WIDE MARGIN The agile Regina netminder, one of the mainstays of Capital all season, held a wide margin over other goalkeepers throughout the season. He allowed opposing teams only 150 goals in 46 games—25 less than any other netminder.

Boston Wins 2 at Weekend, Chi-Hawks Out of Running

MONTREAL, March 14.—(CP)—Take another look at Boston before you decide who's going to win the Stanley cup.

The Bruins, who spent several weeks backing and filling in the National Hockey league race, appear to have found themselves.

Last week, after Montreal's Bill Durnan had them out twice in two games, the Bruins shifted their forward lines. The next time out last Wednesday they appeared to be the tallest New York Rangers 5-11.

Saturday night they edged Toronto Maple Leafs 2-1 for their first victory over a "forencity" club in seven meetings. Then they moved to Detroit and handed the pro-scrumming Red Wings a convincing 6-2 setback.

The Boston streak left Bruins in second place, a point ahead of the Bruins shifted their forward lines. The next time out last Wednesday they appeared to be the tallest New York Rangers 5-11.

Durnan's last shutout and the single goal he allowed Sunday night wrapped up the Bruins trophy for the first time since 1929. His new leads Detroit's Harry Lumley, his nearest competitor in the goals against department, by 18 goals—122 to 104. Both have three games left in the regular season.

Chicago Black Hawks' last glimpse of playoff hopes was shattered Sunday as they dropped a 3-1 decision to the four-place Leafs. The Toronto club, four points behind Canadians and five goals of Bruins, appeared to be certain to finish no higher than its present fourth slot.

Calgary.—Somewhere after the doings in ramshackle Victoria arena here Saturday night, one can easily see the idea that at last Keith Woodall has been accepted by all his Flyer teammates.

At such a late date, you ask? Yes, at such a late date. It's known that no more recently than 10 days ago at least three of four members or the Flyer cast were still aiming to pull the rug from under the young netminder who came to Edmonton by way of Kitchener—Waterloo Dutchmen.

"Give Earl Robertson a crack at the goalkeeping," was their cry.

However, just as the final klaxon went Saturday and almost all of his teammates swarmed around Woodall to offer congratulations, the reportedly "Robertson-for-goal" movement appeared to be in its death throes.

And Robertson, hero of many a tough National Hockey league rumble in his salad days, was as loud—maybe louder in his praise as any other.

"I think he played a good game? Why he's played three good games," was the reaction of Red Dutton's one-time goalie with New York Americans.

Woodall's Save Was Turning Point

For our money, a stop Woodall made on Bob Brownridge while Flyers were stumbling from the effects of the penalties in the early going came close to being the turning point of the game. Brownridge, no part of a clown in the payoff zone, had Woodall seemingly close as he let fly from 15 feet.

Somewhat, the Flyer netminder lashed out with his right leg to turn the drive to the corner of the rink. Had the Montreal-born puck blocker failed to come up with this great effort Stamps would have gone to the Bill Daly, then and there. And one in from Gary (Camera-shy) Burke's Cowboys might have taken considerable heading off.

As it was Woodall broke Brownridge's heart and later on Red MacDermid tried to break every bone in the body of the former New York Rover. Midway through the second period the hefty Flyer rearguard sent Brownridge flying into the end of the rink with a body-check, for which he received a boarding penalty.

It took a bevy of rink attendants, working in relays, several minutes to pry Brownridge from the boards. All of a sudden he was just a part of the crowd.

Seriously, though, Flyers played this one a lot tougher. The road to their net was anything but the soft touch it often had been in the first two contests.

Devicq Under Flyer Surveillance

Doug Anderson is wearing a big patch of adhesive on his nose as he awaits tonight's game. Once again Stan Devicq, as in the second round, is being kept under a clipped Andy Clowchuck under the eye, was the stick-welder who clonked Anderson.

If this happens just once more the boys will start to question the Devicq method.

Morcy Rimstad, Elmer Kreiler and Alce Pringle (killing off penalties) Gordon Watt, Bud MacPherson, Bill Pettigrew, and right down the line Flyers hung tough Saturday night. It must be assumed that Stamps' derbies were easy marks. They were anything but. Just before Kilburn eased the strain by shooting for his insurance goal Johnny Miller, with a good deal of football will be beaten. Had this drive been a couple of inches inside the upright arc would have read 2-2, with five minutes to go.

That's how close it was, despite the Flyers' distinct territorial edge.

Yet it could be over by midnight tonight.

As Elmer Kreiler put it: "We'll be digging even harder in this one." And that's all that's required unless anyone says Flyers want to scuttle the current Calgary crew.

Walt Tatchuk Crashes Ski Leaping Spotlight

Ski enthusiasts who took in the northern Alberta jumping championships at the Edmonton Ski club feast Sunday afternoon still are talking about the leap a 15-year-old Edmonton youth turned in.

After giving fellow jumper O. B. H. a good talking, talk about is the fact that Walter Tatchuk has been "yumping" for two years.

Tatchuk stole the show even though Gunnar Aasen, Canadian veteran, took home the 1500-meter championship and the Benny Clarke Memorial trophy.

Bowling Tourney Opens With Bang

Don Farquharson, consistent city trundler, was in the groove as the Edmonton Five Pin Bowling association's annual pin derby opened with a bang at the Rec alleys Saturday afternoon.

When firing ceased for the day, Farquharson was on top in both the A singles and individual game departments. He rolled a very respectable three-game total of 379, and also clocked for a lofty 278 in the high individual event.

Alfreder Fred Cummings, in the absence of Mayor Harry Ainlay, officially opened the popular tourney, which runs through until Saturday. Some 2,000 thronged, from Dawson Creek, Calgary, Vancouver and Edmonton, have entered. "Punch" Rogers will dominate the alley later in the week.

While Farquharson was running wild, the singles, the Obberg and George Hovis crashed the A doubles spotlight. The pair, each of whom bowl in Vancouver, posted four straight 100's, posted a combined effort of 1,423 pins.

The Ralph Markey-Wyn Hall duo was right behind with 1,380, while Vic Makowichuk and Vera Moha led 1,374.

While the individual bowling was good (23 keepers posted single games over 200), it was not so good for the team. A team of 15 bowlers was broken before the week runs out.

Quebec Lawyer Given N.Y. Opera Contract

NEW YORK, March 14.—(CP)—A young Quebec lawyer and a Pennsylvania girl yesterday became the latest singing additions to the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The lawyer is Denis Harbour, 26, of Oka, Que., a graduate of the University of Montreal.

The girl is Lois Hunt, 23, a pretty, brown-haired lyric soprano.

AUDITION WINNERS
Both received their "Met" contracts after being declared the winners of the Metropolitan Opera auditions of the air.

In addition to the contracts, each received a cheque for $1,000—the Cupchert scholarships presented by the sponsors of the contest, the Fairview Television and Radio Corporation.

Harbour and Miss Hunt were selected by a board of judges headed by Edward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Association.

More than 900 singers competed in the contest.

FINAL BROADCAST
The final auditions yesterday were broadcast over the American Broadcasting Company's network from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House.

Harbour, a bass-baritone, studied voice while he worked for his law degree at the University of Montreal. After graduation, he sang on a Montreal radio station and rapidly became well known.

Three years ago he came to New York to pursue his studies. He was a finalist in last year's Met auditions.

The ballet of the modern theatre, in which posturing and mimetic actions are combined had its beginning in the 19th century.

Today, he went through another series of functions—though without breechmaking—that included a meeting with Governor Williams of Michigan, just across the Detroit river from this border city.

Mr. Coldwell spoke before a CCF nominating convention, letting go with a blast aimed at both the Progressive Conservatives and the Liberals and certain unidentified newspapers that support them.

"The old parties about loudly about the menace of Communism but they provide the soil of poverty, misery and want in which Communism takes root and flourishes."

Government plans for unemployment, he said, would not provide work for more than 40,000 persons in the course of a full year.

"In other words—plans prepared by the government to meet the unemployment situation. If put into effect, would not provide sufficient jobs for the 50,000 unemployed which the minister of fisheries stated are to be found already in the Vancouver area alone."

The bill will be presented by Mines and Resources Minister James MacKinnon.

Red War Support Called Treason

Will Be No Persecution, However, Says St. Laurent

WINDSOR, Ont., March 14.—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent proclaimed a tough policy against Canadian Communists Saturday night but said there would be no "persecution."

BIRD REFUSES TO GIVE UP UNEQUAL BOUT

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 14.—(AP)—A little sparrow is fighting a duel with a shiny spotlight atop an idle air-conditioning truck at the airport here.

The sparrow, a female, has been carrying on the battle for 10 days—with intermissions for rest, food-hunting and building a nest with her mate in an exhaust outlet of the truck.

The headlight is none the worse for the repeated attacks, but the sparrow is. Observers thought yesterday they noted a little less fire in the bird's offensive.

The headlight offers slippery footing and about all she can do is to get in a couple of pecks and beat the "enemy" with her wings and then slide off or fly away for another attack.

He had hoped the St. Lawrence waterway project will be approved at the current session of the United States Congress—otherwise, power development by Canada alone on the river will have to be launched.

ELECTION DATE UNSET

2. He still does not know the date of Canada's general election.

3. A guessing Progressive Conservatives were planning for the Quebec vote in their attitude on the Atlantic coast, he said they should come out with a clear statement of their standing.

4. The government will not take measures to root Reds out of Canadian unions, which are doing a good job of their own in this direction.

THREE SPEECHES SATURDAY

The Prime Minister, who has been shooting from Ottawa recently on week-end speaking trips in Ontario and Quebec, examined three speeches and several station-plate appearances into his four Saturdays.

He delivered addresses here, in Chatham, Ont., and in the 12,000 population village of Belle River, 22 miles from Windsor.

Today, he went through another series of functions—though without breechmaking—that included a meeting with Governor Williams of Michigan, just across the Detroit river from this border city.

Mr. Coldwell spoke before a CCF nominating convention, letting go with a blast aimed at both the Progressive Conservatives and the Liberals and certain unidentified newspapers that support them.

Contrast this Canadian way with conditions in lands where freedom is denied—where every bank is a political tool, every banker a public

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Sleepless Nights May Indicate Pinworms

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

There is something seriously amiss when a mother cannot get her baby to sleep one single night from the time of birth. This is not normal behavior. Given a good diet and a proper environment for sleep, it is to be expected that babies will sleep from 14 to 20 hours during the early weeks and eventually at least 12 hours nightly after the third or fourth month.

BRIDGE

Plays It Safe And Makes An Overtick

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

Have you ever listened to one of the stars on the radio, and wondered what type of person he or she is? Having heard Jack Kelly on the air many times I had the pleasure of meeting him the other day, and found him very interesting.

Mrs. L. writes that her baby of 11 months has not slept a whole night through since birth. "She sleeps usually when I put her in bed, but will twist and turn and squirm for the better part of each night. I sit up every night from 1 o'clock to 4:30, and yet I know there is nothing seriously wrong."

"Today, I noticed that she passed some pinworms and now I believe firmly that this has been her trouble at night. My five-year-old has had them, too, and when I told her doctor he just laughed. It is no laughing matter to spend nights after night attending to a baby."

It seems to me that when you see the evidence of pinworms you would let anyone laugh you out of it. Go to another doctor who will help you clear this up.

A New Mother: Every young parent is stamped by the problem of the baby. The baby is a recreation for herself at no expense to the baby. So far you have solved it by taking the baby with you and seeing that he got his sleep at your friend's home. But, you can't continue this indefinitely as you have to restrict your recreation to visits with friends where there are places where it would be unwise to take the baby.

The answer, of course, is an accommodating relative who will stay in the home with the baby or a paid sister. In many cities this help can be had for 35 cents an hour up to midnight and 50 cents after that. Be sure to choose a sister mature enough to deal with emergencies.

Our infant No. 38 "Sleeping Habits" may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

MONTREAL.—(CP)—Hospital authorities searched records for many years but couldn't find any other instance of the sort being free of ice in the first week of January as it was this year.

He started out in 1938 with Warner Brothers in "The Desert Song." He was in a road show of "Oklahoma" and then took the lead in the New York company in 1940. They tell me that he was the first television disc jockey. He is heard every Sunday afternoon on "The Jane Pickens Show" over NBC, and he thinks that the best thing he has done so far is his recent M-G-M recording of "Sunflower."

Jack is a careful and deliberate player. Many players would be content just to make six-odd on the top's hand and forget it, but not Jack. He won the coming lead of the diamond game in dummy with the ace, then cashed the ace of hearts.

When he led a small heart from dummy, I wondered why he was not bothering to pick up the trump but he played it safe. He trumped the four of hearts with the ten of spades and went back four to dummy's king of spades. When both opponents followed, Jack led that five of hearts again and trumped it with the jack of spades.

Another small spade was used to dummy, picking up the opponents' suit trump. Then Jack ruffed the seven of hearts in his own hand. That established the ten of hearts so that he could discard his losing club. He still had two trumps in dummy to ruff his losing diamonds, so he made seven-odd.

Much DP Labor Is Freed To Seek Preferred Jobs

The policy will allow them to leave the government employment program.

This will help them find work in the private sector.

Pope Pius Observes 10th Year of Reign

VATICAN CITY, March 14.—(A.P.)—Pope Pius XII observed today the 10th anniversary of his accession to the papacy.

He gave a message of peace to the world.

He also observed the 10th anniversary of the end of World War II.

The year was 1885...

It was above the crackling rifle fire of the Battle of Batoche in the Northwest Territories that a makeshift red and white flag. It had been sewn together by Major-General (later Surgeon) G. Steacy, Ryerson from factory cotton and pieces of red cloth "stolen" from an ammunition cart. Under its protection wounded men were carried from the field. For the first time... the Red Cross flag had been flown in Canada!

Thirty years later the first "colonial" branch of the Red Cross in the British Empire was formed in Canada. The General Ryerson who had patched together the flag at Batoche was its first executive. Even in their humanitarian efforts, the men of Canada were not without their sense of humor.

Today all over the world, the Red Cross is built on the recognized principles of humanity. The men of Canada deserve your support—it is a dramatic reminder of the "made in Canada" spirit which has brought the "service of others" under all conditions of war, in peace, in times of trouble or national distress.
